Dear friends

What a wonderful week we had in October with Gillian, Leslie & Ian making Profession of Faith on one Sunday then a 'full house' for Jane & Douglas's wedding on the Saturday and Harvest the day after. It doesn't get much better than this!

In November we have opportunity once again to dig a bit deeper into the bible with the Wednesday Look at Luke Bible Study. This also gives us great opportunity to get to know each other that bit better and I would encourage you to come along and be part of this.

I have a busy month ahead with various events away from Meadowbank starting with The Glasgow Gathering—a 3 day conference from 31 October till 2 November. This marks the 10th anniversary of the start of Place for Hope at a conference in Aviemore looking at 'Conflict & Faith'. I'll be 'Over the sea to Skye' on 12-13th November to deliver training to Skye & Lochalsh Presbytery on how to work with conflict in the church and then, at the end of the month, I attend a Sports Chaplaincy Conference in Pitlochry with opportunity to share experience as Chaplain to Edinburgh City FC.

Blessings to you all

Our prayers with our Harvest goods go to Fresh Start

A big 'thank you' to all the members of Meadowbank Church who gave so generously to last Sunday's Harvest Thanksgiving. I have delivered all the goods and donations to Fresh Start and they are very grateful for our continuing support of their work.

Peter Gray

Thanks, too, to Waitrose at Comely Bank who contributed to our Harvest and helped made it even bigger!

No-one who was there will forget this most wonderful day when Jane & Douglas were married in church. The service very much reflected the lively faith they share and the church was overflowing with friends and family. We wish them God's richest blessing!

Wedding of the Year!

When new members make a Profession of Faith we are all reminded of our own commitment to Jesus and to his church. Leslie Cunningham, Ian Drummond and Gillian Robertson had been part of a small group with Russell over the past few months with opportunity to share understanding and experience of faith. In the few weeks before the service they each read a Gospel by reading right through as with a novel, then, in the service, shared some thoughts on what had struck them about that Gospel in a new way.

Our new members

Then Jesus said to his disciples: "Therefore I tell you, do not worry about your life, what you will eat; or about your body, what you will wear. For life is more than food, and the body more than clothes" —from Luke 12

By using modern day Glaswegians as his models, Iain Campbell's compelling paintings from each of the 24 chapters of the Gospel bring 21st century life to the words of a first century disciple. In a 10 minute interview with the subject of the painting Iain helps us explore some big issues. In this painting, we see the images of birds and flowers in the background, contrasted with Iain's friend, Fiona Morrison, going through her last chemotherapy session. This is a great and very personal 'starter' to look at Jesus words—'Do not worry!'
